ADVISING

LSJ ADVISING

LSJ Academic Advisers work with students to clarify and reflect on academic and personal goals. LSJ Advisers help students develop their ability to think critically and demonstrate the core skills and values of a liberal arts education. Through partnerships with faculty, staff, alumni, and LSJ students, LSJ Advisers help position students for careers of deep personal and social significance.

SERVICE DOG IN TRAINING IN OFFICE

Kyla Krueger, Academic Services Manager in LSJ, is currently training a service dog for Canine Companions for Independence. If you'd like to make an appointment with Kyla and would like to meet outside of her office or would like the puppy to be in the kennel during your appointment, please indicate that in your appointment request. You can also meet with the other LSJ Adviser, Qanani.
