Megan Ming Francis Named One of 12 Grant-Supported Freedom Scholars

Submitted by Lindsay Cael on September 21, 2020 - 8:53am

Megan Ming Francis, Political Science and LSJ Associate Professor, is part of a $3 million initiative by the Marguerite Casey Foundation and Group Health Foundation. With this grant, Francis plans "to expand the organizing work I do with incarcerated populations and will provide necessary seed funding to launch another project focused on detailing what wealthy institutions owe to communities of color." Read more about this amazing award here.

Congratulations Megan!

People Involved: Megan Ming Francis

News Category: Community Impact, Faculty and Staff, Honors and Awards, In the Press

Department of Law, Societies & Justice
University of Washington
Smith M253, Box 353565
Seattle, WA 98195

Phone: (206) 543-2396
Fax: (206) 685-5186
lsjadv@uw.edu