Online Education Resources for Students

The University of Washington transitioned to an online education model in light of COVID-19. Classes and instruction are currently being offered remotely throughout spring quarter and summer quarter. The LSJ Department is providing the following resources and guidance to support remote education.

This page will be updated regularly with resources and recommendations for teaching online and supporting your students during the COVID-19 outbreak.

Resources for Students

- COVID-19 Resources for UW Community
- Accessibility Resources (*must use UW NetId to access)
- Emergency Aid
- Mental Wellbeing
- COVID-19 Disability Resources for Students
- Virtual Student Engagement Activities
- Academic Support Programs and On-line Learning

Online Exams

- Students: About online exam proctoring with Proctorio
- Students: Get started with Proctorio

Classes

Best practices for successful online learning:

- Turn on Canvas notifications.
- Learn how to find and submit assignments on Canvas.
- Check your UW email at least twice a day, setting up email forwarding if necessary.
- Familiarize yourself with Zoom. Your UW NetID has now been upgraded to a Zoom Pro account.
- If your instructor uses Poll Everywhere, sign in to the application with your NedID to sync your responses with Canvas.
- Set up a distraction-free workspace and set aside time to focus.

Other Support Resources

Most UW and LSJ resources remain available but have transitioned from in person to phone, Zoom or Canvas.

- Online tutoring via CLUE
- Online tutoring via the IC
- Disability resources for students
- Disabilities, Opportunities, Internetworking, and Technology (DO-IT): How to access accommodations in an online learning environment

- Counseling Center
- Hall Health
- Online Study Skills Resources

Department of Law, Societies & Justice
University of Washington
Smith M253,
Box 353565
Seattle, WA 98195

Phone: (206) 543-2396
Fax: (206) 685-5186
lsjadv@uw.edu

Source URL: https://lsj.washington.edu/online-education-resources-students